Making a Difference Through Art

Sponsored by The Youth Council of the Northern Virginia Workforce Investment Board and Fairfax County Department of Community and Recreation Services

Competition Rules

What Is Tapestry for Tomorrow?

This is an opportunity for you to show your creative art skills and a chance to have your work displayed in an art gallery.

Who Can Enter?

Youth ages 12-19 who reside in the counties of Fairfax, Loudoun, or Prince William, or cities of Fairfax, Falls Church, Manassas, or Manassas Park, are eligible. No entry fee.

Submission & Entry Form

Entry forms are being accepted now. You can request a "Tapestry for Tomorrow" package, forms, rules and regulations from your art teacher at your local school, on the Internet at http://www.myskillsource.org/home/youth\_services/youth\_activities/, or by calling:

703-324-TEEN (8336)

at Fairfax County Department of Community and Recreation Services

Participants are asked to fill out an application form, with the following information: title, art medium, size, value, and the artist's description that should be displayed with the entry. There is no entry fee.

Art Competition

This year's theme is "My Life in 2013". Your art work should reflect the job or career you will be doing in the next ten years. If your art work does not depict your vision or career dreams in the next ten years, it will not be accepted in the competition.

Participants' artwork must be two-dimensional, framed, and ready for display. Frames must already have hook eyes or other means of hanging attached. Clip mounts are not acceptable. Members of the Arts Council of Fairfax County will display the artwork in an art gallery for one month.

If you need assistance covering the cost of framing or making arrangements to retrieve your artwork at the end of the exhibition, call 703-324-TEEN (8336). Artwork may not be removed before April 29, 2003.

Participants will be invited to a special ceremony at the exhibition, and will receive a t-shirt commemorating their participation in the competition. Only 100 submissions will be chosen to be displayed at the art gallery. All winning art pieces will travel in a small art showing throughout Northern Virginia for twelve months.

Art Medium

You may use any art medium, including charcoal, graphite, acrylic, oil paint, computer graphics, and other.

Art Work May Be Dropped Off From 9 - 4 p.m. at:

All framed artwork must be submitted by 2:00 p.m. by April 3, 2003.

For artwork drop-off sites contact your art teacher or a representative listed for details.
